Trade Credit Insurance

We provide protection for clients against accounts receivable losses. Companies that sell goods or services on credit terms are highly exposed to the risk of non-payment due to customer insolvency, protracted default and political risks that prevent the buyer from fulfilling its payment obligations.

What is Credit Insurance?

- Trade Credit Insurance indemnifies the policyholder for the invoice value of goods delivered to a customer but unpaid due to the customer's insolvency or default.
- Policies are written on a 12-month basis, covering goods delivered to customers during the policy period.
- Premium is charged as a rate on sales or a rate on approved limits. The policy features risk-sharing in the form of a self-insured retention and/or co-insurance

Who Buys Trade Credit Insurance?

- Any company that sells goods and services on credit terms (i.e. extends credit to customers rather than requiring payment up front) and is exposed to the risk of non-payment.
- Large, medium and small commercial enterprises.
- Subsidiaries or divisions of multinational companies may buy coverage for different regions or product lines locally, or under a coordinated global

Top Reasons to Buy Trade Credit Insurance

- Protects against the risk of a customer default on sales made on credit terms.
- Increases sales to new and existing customers.
- Mitigates concentration risk when a large portion of a company's sales are concentrated among a few customers.
- Facilitates attractive bank financing.
- Helps establish new foreign markets to increase export sales.
- Supports a company's accounts receivable management and validates credit protocols.
- Provides an insured credit limit for a customer and monitors portfolio performance during the policy period.
- Reduces your company's bad debt reserve.
- Offers a solution for directors and officers by providing a second opinion on customer credit limit decisions and monitoring the customer portfolio.
- Provides cost-effective collection agency services.

Available Products

- Domestic and Export Credit Insurance (DECI)
Domestic, foreign or global accounts receivable protection is provided for any loss arising from buyer payment default due to insolvency, protracted default or the failure of the exchange authority in the buyer's country to transfer foreign currency.
